

Quilters Unlimited May 29-31, 2020 Quilt Show CANCELLED

Based on the announcement made by the Virginia Governor at 2:00 p.m. today (March 30), we have cancelled the QU Quilt Show scheduled for May 29-31. We are very disappointed about this decision but know it is both required and the right thing to do.

The Quilt Show is something our members look forward to all year long. And many of us work on it for much of the year as well. I want to give a special thanks to Kathi Cappellini and her entire Quilt Show Team for the outstanding job they have done to support the Quilt Show – we couldn't have the show without them!

We also want to thank our sponsors, vendors and instructors who were scheduled for the Quilt Show. We will miss not seeing them. I encourage you all to support our sponsors, vendors and instructors throughout the year. A list of them will be on our website (QuiltersUnlimited.org).

Some good news – mark your calendars for our 2021 Quilt Show which will be held June 4-6, 2021 at the Dulles Expo Center. Please take care of yourself, stay at home and spend some time quilting. Thanks,
Sue
